EDITORIAL NEWS AND VIEWS

Dear Readers

Spring is arriving with plentiful displays of snowdrops and daffodils in bud will soon start to bloom. Time to turn our thoughts towards planting out our gardens. After a year's absence the Scout Bedding Plant sale is back, not only providing good quality plants at very competitive prices, but they are delivered right to your door. Also, of course, it raises much needed funds for the Scout troop. See the centre pages for your order form.

Last month I asked for some new ideas for the magazine and one reader suggested publishing family recipes. If you have a recipe that has been handed down through the generations and isn't a closely guarded secret, then why keep it to yourself, share it with our readers by emailing it to me at the address below for publication in the next issue.

Kingsley Players have been busy coaching the next generation of actors with their Youth Theatre Group and on Saturday 25th March they will perform their first play, 'Fantastic Mr Fox'. I'm sure they will be excellent and wish them all the best for their first show.

And finally, don't forget to put your clocks forward on 26th March. Can't wait for those lighter nights.

Elizabeth

Polite Notice – Dog Control

There have been several complaints recently with regard to dogs running loose within the Kingsley Playing Field and upsetting other users of the park. The Parish Council have recently invested time and money within the playing field for the benefit of everyone in the village. Whether your dog is friendly or not, please make sure they are under control and not liable to run up to other members of the public, which can be scary, especially for children.

Please also ensure dogs are kept off the play area (identified by the coloured surface) at all times.

The Parish Council are considering options to address this problem so that the playing field is a welcome and enjoyable environment for everyone.

The police will be making patrols around the playing field and have said that anyone with any concerns can ring them on 101.

Kingsley Players' new Youth Theatre present 'Fantastic Mr Fox'

Kingsley Players' new Youth Theatre group take to the stage on Saturday 25 March with their debut production, an adaptation of Roald Dahl's 'Fantastic Mr Fox'.

The group was formed last year under the leadership of primary school teacher and experienced Kingsley Players actor Jake Powell, assisted by talented young performers Tom Hayes and Ellie Hamer.

'Fantastic Mr Fox' is a skilful adaptation of Roald Dahl's much-loved children's novel by Sally Reid. This play received the famous author's blessing and apparently he liked it so much, he personally sent it to his publisher.

Adult leader and production director, Jake Powell, said: "We have an enthusiastic cast of over 20 children and young people, aged seven to 18, who bring the well-known characters to life.

"This production promises to be a hit with those who have grown up with Roald Dahl stories, and those who are new to the world of Dahl!"

'Fantastic Mr Fox'* will be performed twice on Saturday 25th March at Kingsley Community Centre, at 2:30pm and 7:30pm.

Tickets cost £5 and can be booked in advance through the website www.kingsleyplayers.co.uk or by ringing the box office on 07724 892154.

Kingsley Players

Coming soon . . .

The May production by Kingsley Players will be "A Grand Gesture" by Deborah McAndrew, directed by Ed Green and brought to you by the same team that put on Bite Sized Shakespeare.

The play is now fully cast and rehearsals have started. It's a black comedy about a young man, down on his luck and – he thought – jokingly wanting to "make a statement" by killing himself. Many people turn up, not to talk him out of it, but to get him to make his "Grand Gesture" theirs in support of their own campaign. They include a Socialist, two woman trying to get the same man and many others. He's bemused.

The play calls for a choir of angels. Ashton Sings has stepped up to the plate and is that choir. Martin Jones, their musical director, has specially arranged pieces that will be recorded and form a big part of the production.

Tickets will be on sale in April. The production dates are from May 17th to 20th inclusive.

Kingsley Bookworms – Next meeting 2nd March 2017 at the Red Bull at 7.30

At our February meeting we talked about “Perfume: The Story of a Murderer” by Patrick Suskind. It is set in the 18th century and translated from German. As expected, the book generated a good discussion. We thought that the book was well written, but the theme was along the lines of a Grimm’s Fairy tale, very dark. The book was translated from German and everyone agreed that this had been very successful.

Because of the theme, we ended up having a number of votes to try to reflect the discussion. Most people were happy to have read the book and scored the “writing and impact” an average of just over 4 out of 5. We then scored the story which scored an average of 2.75 out of 5. It was a very interesting evening.

At this month’s meeting we will be talking about “My Husband’s Wife” by Jane Corry and the four Costa shortlisted books including the winner “Days without End” by Sebastian Barry. In the past we have been critical of some award winning books so we decided to see how our views compare with the judges. It promises to be an interesting evening.

At our April meeting we will be talking about “Birds without Wings” by Louis de Bernieres, an author that we have read before. A full list of our books for 2017 is on our Facebook page.

Everyone is welcome to join us at any of our meetings or events. If you want more information, or to join in any of our events please contact me on vgwillim@coach-work.co.uk or call me on 07799 067 457. We have also got our own Facebook page called Kingsley Bookworms.

On Stage Near You

Not already enjoying local shows? You really ought to get out more.

What a good start to the year with KP's (Kingsley Players) musical, The Mouse's Tale which was written by KP's own Arnold Ashbrook who was also the Musical Director and overall directorship in the safe hands of Lynn Pegler. A good story told mainly in song and excellent performances by the cast. We also especially liked the inventive costumes by the wardrobe team headed by Joan Barker.

Harlequin Junior Players presented Sinbad and the Pirates which was written by KP's Ellie Hamer, a very talented teenager. This group which won the Cheshire Theatre Guild award for best Junior production last year showed the way for junior performances. A well performed piece expertly guided by director Laura Bason. by Harlequin Juniors and directed By Laura Bason (Hot Flush director for Zodiacs).

KP's legendary 'Allo Allo' was on tour and the feedback from Sandiway Golf Club and Kingsley Village Institute If you have not seen thiwas full of high praises. We know there are many Allo Allo groupies, and the evenings are a great night out. Around two dozen players and helpers give up a lot of time every year and all of the surplus money, which has amounted to tens of thousands of pounds, goes to various charities and is mainly helping to support your Community Centre. The website shows they are also on tour with in November this year and March and November next year. If you wish to organise a charity night we recommend you contact them through <http://www.kingsleyplayers.co.uk/productions/allo-allo/>. Don't hang around because their first available date is in November 2018.

What's to see in March:

In Kingsley the first production from recently formed KP Juniors is Roald Dahl's The fantastic Mr Fox. directed by Jake Powell is on for just one day on 25th March. Can the clever Mr Fox save his family and friends from the three nasty farmers? <http://www.kingsleyplayers.co.uk/>

9 to 11 Harlequin Theatre, Northwich is presenting , A Flea in Her Ear billed as a riotous farce by Georges Feydeau and directed by KP's Malcolm Barker, well known for his comedy productions. The cast includes KP's Jake Powell and Iain Bennett (Frodsham Players). <http://www.harlequinplayers.com/new-events/>

11 – 18 Chester Little Theatre – The Cripple of Inishmaan by Martin McDonagh. Hilariously funny and darkly bizarre, McDonagh's picture of rural Irish life has elements of Samuel Beckett, Jonathan Swift and Father Ted. <http://www.chestertheatreclub.co.uk/>

14 – 18 Ashton Hayes Theatre Club - Great Expectations by Charles Dickens adapted by Yvette Owen who also directs. A classic tale from a group with an excellent reputation. The play features KP's Fran Hamer as Miss Havesham. <http://www.ashtonhayestheatreclub.co.uk/>

22 – 25 Nantwich {Players Youth Group – Wolves of Willoughby Chase. In an alternate history of England, two brave and determined girls as they fight against ferocious wolves, snowy wastelands, and their very evil guardian.
<http://www.nantwichplayers.com/plays/>

23 – 25 Tarporley ADS – The Ghost Train by Arnold Ridley (Godfrey in the original Dad's Army) – a cracking tale of great fun and should be an happy way to spend an evening

28 – 31 Frodsham Players – Grimm Tales by Philip Pullman.
<http://www.frodshamplayers.com/next-show/>

So lots to see so do turn the tele off and get off to the theatre. Some really great evenings on offer....and please send in your feedback for the benefit of others.If your production or a play you have seen did not appear here then please email us and tell us about it by emailing cheshireonstage@btinternet.com. Kingsley Walking Group

The February long walk was an 8 mile circuit of Tatton Park. The weather was good and although the park, at half term, was popular with families, there was plenty of space for the 11 of us to explore, with only deer and sheep for company. Lunch was taken at the picnic tables in the stable yard near the mansion.

The short walk was a 5 mile tour of the pretty village of Lymm. 19 of us started at the Barn Owl Inn, walking across fields and through Helsdale Wood, alongside the High School playing fields to St Peter's church and then past the Water Tower house. After walking around Lymm Dam, we returned through the village centre and along the Bridgewater Canal to the pub for lunch.

Kingsley Walking Group have two walks each month: on the second Tuesday there is a long walk of 7 - 8.5 miles (bring a packed lunch); on the last Wednesday a short walk of approximately 5 miles with a coffee break and pub lunch. We meet at the Community Centre at 9.30am for the short walks and for the long walks in January and February. Note however an earlier start time of 9.00am for the long walks from March to November.

. Information on the walks programme may be found on the Walking Club page of the Kingsley Village website. For more information tel. 788132 (short walks), 788068 (long walks).

COME AND JOIN US

We are a group of ladies (mainly mums from Kingsley) of mixed ability and mixed fitness levels that formed a netball group at the start of last year.

The average age is 35ish and average time since the majority of us played must be 20 years! However, there are a few amongst us who have played more recently and are teaching and reminding us of all the rules we have forgotten.

None of us can commit to anything very regular. Instead we just want to play intermittently, have a bit of fun, improve and get to know a few others from the school/village. We wondered if there were any mums or friends and family members who might be interested in joining us and would welcome you on a Sunday evening. Cost is £3 a session.

Please don't be put off by thinking it is so long since you played and therefore you might not be good enough. We all enjoyed playing at school and it's great to play again whatever standard.

If you might be interested please give me a phone, Celia Maddock on 07748672457 or email me on celiamaddock@googlemail.com.
