Welcome to the September 22 edition of the Kingsley News,

There is a lot planned in Kingsley and the surrounding area this month.

The Macmillan coffee morning takes place on the morning of 30th September, the WI are kindly helping organise this event and would welcome donations of raffle prizes (in advance) and also donations of cakes on the morning of the event.

Kingsley Village Institute has an open day planned for the afternoon of Saturday 11th Sept from 1pm, why not pop along and check out the fantastic facilities, there will be a BBQ, bar and light refreshments too.

Kingsley Cricket Club also sees the return of its Beer Festival on Friday 23rd and Saturday 24th September.

Our regular groups are also starting back up and this month. Don't forget that our regular activities continue at the Community Centre, with Yoga, Pilates, Tai Chi, Zumba and Karate all continuing at the centre in September. Please do support these groups.

A quick shout out also to our new advertiser this month, Sarah from Love 2 Clean, Sarah covers Kingsley and her contact details and services offered are contained in her advert.

Finally, I have a small personal request for help. I am currently editing both the Kingsley News and also organising the bookings at the Community Centre. It would be really appreciated if someone had a bit of spare time to help me. Typical aspects of the work are editing documents in Microsoft Word or Publisher, meeting people at the community centre to show them around, creating booking paperwork and sending them out to centre users. Please drop me a line or give me a call if you think you could help.

Best wishes

Heather

Kingsley Players success at 2022 Cheshire Theatre Guild Awards

Kingsley Players have enjoyed major success in the 2022 Cheshire Theatre Guild awards at Chester Little Theatre, winning four categories against strong competition from across the county.

Peter Pan, directed by Jake Powell, staged in January, was awarded the James Tait Award for Best Production with Musical Content, and nine-year-old cast member Rachel Horton, was given the special Adjudicator's Award for her performance as Tinkerbell.

Neil Silcock's comedy acting talent was recognised by the Jane Keylock Award for Comedy for his role as Frank in the popular Alan Ayckbourn play How the Other Half Loves. Lesley Silcock, his wife in real life as well as on stage, also received a nomination for the same award for her portrayal of Frank's wife, Fiona.

And Lynn Pegler received her second Write Now! Dave Murray Award for New Writing for the premiere of her new one act play about the famous children's author Lewis Carroll and his relationship with the real Alice.

Alice's Quest for Wonderland featured performances by Lynn, James Partington, Simon Hetherington and Jo Oultram in a fast-moving drama in which they played more than 22 characters.

Kingsley Players chair Jo Oultram said: "I am delighted that our high standard of work has been recognised again by the Cheshire Theatre Guild. These awards reflect both the talent of our performers and that of our production team, who put so much effort into stage management, sound, lighting, costumes and running the theatre in Kingsley."

Four further nominations were received by Kingsley Players Youth Theatre (KPYT) members Iona Anstice (Peter Pan) and Kate Burge (Grimm Tales) for Most Promising Young Female Actor, Jake Powell for Best Director of a youth production (Grimm Tales) and Best Costumes for How the Other Half Loves.

Kingsley Players will next be on stage in October (26-29) with Harold Brighouse's classic play Hobson's Choice, directed by Lesley Silcock, and in January 2023 with a production of Julian Fellowes' West End hit musical adaption of Wind in the Willows, directed by Lynn Pegler.

For more information check out the Kingsley Players website www.kingsleyplayers.co.uk.

Wind in the Willows – Auditions, Sunday 11 September.

Come and be part of our big January musical production! This version of Kenneth Grahame’s much loved story was written by Julian Fellowes (Downton Abbey), features fabulous songs and was a big hit when it was premiered in the West End in 2017.

The show offers lots of great acting and singing roles for adults and young people. Many of the minor roles include solo songs or lines. It’s not just about a few major characters and a chorus!

Time: 3pm Children (Year 3 – 7); 4pm Adults and young people (Year 8 upwards)

Place: Kingsley Community Centre

There is no need to learn any songs in advance – we will go through sample songs on the day for solo singer auditions:

Rehearsals will start in early November. Mostly Sunday afternoons for all cast and two evenings a week for principals.

Production dates: 25-28 January 2023

Email Director Lynn Pegler for more details. lynn@peglercommunications.co.uk

Following on from last edition's Kingsley Secondary School magazine extracts , Bryan Whitby has written in explaining that his late father, Harry Dennis Whitby was Deputy Headmaster of the school when it closed in 1969, having taught at the school since the early 1950s. The photograph below, provided by Bryan, shows one of his first classes and the other photograph shows the final teaching team with a letter from Cheshire County Council advising Mr Whitby of his transfer to Weaverham County Secondary School to take up the post of Head of the lower school. Thank you Bryan for sharing these photographs with us.

The final teaching team - Kingsley Secondary School

28th October, 1969

Dear Mr. Whitby,

Closure of Kingsley County Secondary School

As you already know it is intended that Kingsley County Secondary School will close at the end of this term.

I should be grateful if you would transfer to Weaverham County Secondary School as from 1st January, 1970, to take up the post as Head of the lower school. In this post you will also be required to teach Art and some Religious education.

Salary will continue to be paid to you at the same level which you formerly enjoyed as deputy Headmaster at Kingsley County Secondary School.

Please let me know as soon as possible whether you are prepared to accept the new post on the conditions stated.

May I take this opportunity to thank you for your services at Kingsley, and I hope that you will be very happy and successful in your new appointment.

Yours sincerely,

for Director of Education

Kingsley Walkers

Summer Walking

There has been a regular pattern of walks this summer. July saw a short walk around Dunham Massey, passing through the gardens and with stretches along the Bridge-water canal. The long walk took six intrepid members around the Goyt Valley on the border between Cheshire and Derbyshire. There was some heavy rain but it did brighten up and they were rewarded with some stunning scenery.

August saw a short walk visiting areas of Petty Pool and the Whitegate Way before a dozen walkers had lunch at the starting point of Blakemore. There is now a bit of a break but a long walk is planned for 27th September.

The Kingsley walking group is always looking to welcome new members. There are two walks a month, a short one of around 4-5 miles on the second Tuesday is usually local and normally has the option of a pub lunch at the end. The longer walk is 8 - 10 miles on the fourth Tuesday in the month and can be a bit further afield with lifts often shared. The pace is not strenuous, particularly for the short walk and it is a great way of getting to know new paths and to meet new friends.

Fancy joining a Choir?

Ashton Sings is a community choir formed in 2012 for people who want to sing with others. We are based in Ashton Hayes and meet on Monday evenings from 7.30 - 9.30pm during term time in the Ashton and Mouldsworth Village Hall.

You don't need to be a good singer, sing solo, or even read music and there are no auditions. It doesn't matter if you are experienced or haven't sung since school. The important thing is to have fun and to enjoy making music.

Our new term starts on Monday 5th September. Why not join us for a free taster session?

Check our website at <http://www.ashtonsings.org.uk> or find us on Facebook. You can also or call 07799 067457 for a chat.

We'd love to meet you.

'Did You Know'?

In the Methodist church, ministers (now known as presbyters), are contracted for 4 or 5 yrs and may then ask for an extension for a few more years if it suits them. In this regard, the Hurst Methodist Church said goodbye in July to their minister, Rev. David Bintliff and his family, who chose to go at this time to fit in with his daughter moving from Primary to Secondary school. We thank him greatly for all the work he has done for us and the Circuit in his first appointment in this difficult time we have all experienced. In September, we welcome Rev. Andrew Emison, minister of Frodsham and Norley Methodist churches, who is taking over pastoral responsibility for the Hurst and Blakelees Methodist churches for the next 2 years.
