EDITORIAL NEWS AND VIEWS

Dear Readers

Now that we have reached the end of April, it would have been nice to be able to celebrate the fine weather, but we seem to have slipped back into winter. The blossom and spring flowers are braving the cold however, so let's hope for a warmer May, and with that thought in mind what's happening in Kingsley this month.

The Red Bull will be holding the annual Spring Fair and May Queen event on 6th May in aid of Kingsley Youth Group. Lots of family activities during the afternoon.

Kingsley Players will be performing their latest play, a royal comedy favourite about a village drama group, 'A Bunch of Amateurs', from 16-19th May. Details on next page.

On 20th May there will be a Treasure Hunt, starting at the Institute and finishing at the Community Centre, with lots of clues and 'treasure' to find along the way.

Don't forget to renew your KNVI membership, renewal form on the centre pages.

And finally, if you need more plants for your gardens don't forget the plant sale at Sandiway Manor on the 26th.

Elizabeth

An amateur production by arrangement with Samuel French

The play, directed by Malcolm Barker, is written by Ian Hislop and Nick Newman, and was originally conceived as a film, starring Burt Reynolds, Derek Jacobi, Samantha Bond and Imelda Staunton. It was selected for the Royal Film Performance in November 2008, when the Queen enjoyed it so much she had it shown at that year's Christmas celebrations in Sandringham.

Facing the loss of their community theatre, an amateur dramatic group from the Suffolk village of Stratford St John decides that their only hope is to cast a celebrity in their final production.

"To their astonishment, ageing Hollywood action hero Jefferson Steel accepts the role of King Lear but when he arrives, it turns out that his agent had deceived him into thinking that the play is to be performed by The Royal Shakespeare Company at the home of the Bard. Instead Jefferson discovers he will be treading the boards in a farm barn alongside a bunch of amateurs. Tantrums, huffs and sexual embarrassments abound, complicated by the arrival of Jefferson's estranged daughter, Jessica, whose presence provides a Lear style sub-plot and a two-hanky finale."

KINGSLEY PARISH COUNCIL DOG CONTROL SURVEY

Kingsley Parish Council carried out a survey during March 2018 in order to accurately reflect the views of the community when responding to Cheshire West and Chester Council's (CW&C) Control of Dogs Orders Review Questionnaire. We based the questions in our survey largely on CW&C's consultation. The survey was sent out as an insert to the March edition of Kingsley News (distribution around 800 households). It was also available to answer online. We had a total of 167 responses and it therefore reflects the views of around a fifth of our community.

It was interesting to see a majority response for several questions – 85% of respondents agreed with CW&C's proposal to exclude dogs from all outdoor fully enclosed children's play areas and 82% of respondents agreed with CW&C's proposal that on all public land dogs should be placed on a lead if requested by an authorised officer. Three quarters of respondents also agreed with CW&C's proposal to restrict the number of dogs that can be walked by one person at any one time, whether on behalf of a business or themselves. 79% said that no more than 3 dogs should be walked at any one time.

There was also a majority view (72%) that CW&C should consider authorising members of other organisations, such as Town and Parish Councils, to be able to issue Fixed Penalty Notices for dog fouling and the other Public Space Protection Orders matters. Interestingly, 64% of people said that they had experienced a problem with dog fouling. One particularly useful piece of information we gained from the survey in this respect included the fact that the Post Office offer free dog poo bags. We also had lots of individual comments which we will reflect upon over the coming months.

A full copy of the results, including all the comments, can be seen on the village website:

<https://www.kingsleyvillage.co.uk/>

Based on these responses, the Parish Council has now submitted our response to Cheshire West and Chester Council as well as the full results of our survey. The Borough Council's Cabinet will consider the outcome of the public consultation in Autumn 2018. On behalf of the Parish Council, I would like to express our sincere thanks to those of you responded to the survey.

On Stage Near You

Not already enjoying local shows? You really ought to get out more.

We included a mention last month to Kingsley Players May production, “ A Bunch of Amateurs” by Ian Hislop of Have I Got News For You and Private Eye fame together with his writing partner Nick Newman. KP advise they are pleased to welcome back Neil Silcock (Some of My Best Friends Are Women), Jo Oultram (Grand Gesture), Phil Murray (Cheshire Theatre Guild Award for Best Supporting Actor in Time of My Life) and Malcolm Barker (Goodnight Mr Tom) as director. They are also pleased to welcome new members, experienced actors from Harlequins, Stephen Hoskins (A Flea in Her Ear), Tina Wyatt (When We Are Married), Caroline Guard (When We Are Married) and Hannah Stacey from Sandiway Players. The storyline: Keen to boost his flagging career, fading Hollywood action hero Jefferson Steele arrives in England to play King Lear in Stratford – only to find that this is not the birthplace of the Bard, but a sleepy Suffolk village. And instead of Kenneth Branagh and Dame Judi Dench, the cast are a bunch of amateurs trying to save their theatre from developers. Jefferson’s monstrous ego, vanity and insecurity are tested to the limit by the enthusiastic am-dram thespians. As acting worlds collide and Jefferson’s career implodes, he discovers some truths about himself – along with his inner Lear. A play follows the film of the same title, a favourite of the Queen and sure to be one of yours. Highly recommended for an early summer laughter filled evening.

Elsewhere in May

But now what is on in May

1 to 5 Davenham Players - Dirty Dusting by Waugh and Wood – Elsie is cheerful & divorced, Olive is very respectably widowed, Gladys loves her Billy: Billy loves his allotment and all three need to keep working ...but Dave is planning the future...without them. www.davenhamplayers.co.uk/

5 to 12 Chester Little Theatre - Playhouse Creatures by April de Angelis - A dramatic comedy. 1669 is a bawdy and troublesome time. The king is back on the throne and for the first time, women are appearing on stage. This joyous play brings historical characters to life. By turns, raucously funny and deeply poignant. <http://www.chestertheatreclub.co.uk/>

16 to 19 Guilden Sutton Players – The Tempest by William Shakespeare – and unusual amdram choice and one for you Shakespeare buffs. <http://www.guildensuttonplayers.org/>

20 to 26 Altrincham Little Theatre – Ladies in Lavender adapted by Shuan Mckenna - This classic tale from screenplay by Charles Dance based on a short story by William J Locke <http://www.clubtheatre.org.uk/>

21 to 26 Altrincham Garrick - Priscilla Queen of the Desert – described as an uplifting musical with the serious aspect of homosexuality and it’s acceptance playing a major part in the show, especially as one of the drag queens is still married and is about to meet his 6 year old son for the first time. <http://www.altrinchamgarrick.co.uk/shows/up-and-coming-2/>

Reviews

Didn't Kingsley Youth Theatre do well with Arabian Nights? This was a challenging production presented with plenty of confidence and skill, and congratulations well deserved by director Jake Powell and his team. Great reviews for that and also for the following. Kingsley Players Kelly White starred in a highly charged production of Dracula which amazed and scared audiences at the Harlequin Theatre with stunning lighting and sound effects supporting superb acting performances. At Frodsham the Players presented Around the World in 80 Days. An innovative production skilfully played with the touch of a talented director. Finally you also liked Ladies Down Under at Knutsford Little Theatre which was an enjoyable romp giving a good evening's entertainment

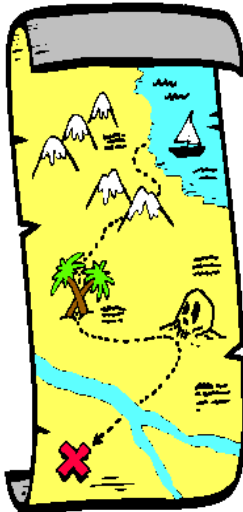

If your production or a play you have seen did not appear here then please email us and do tell us about plays you have seen by emailing cheshireonstage@btinternet.com. John Doe

Thy Kingdom Come
Global Wave of Prayer
10th May - 20th May

Thy Kingdom Come is a global prayer movement that invites Christians around the world to pray for more people to come to know Jesus. What started in 2016 as an invitation from the Archbishops of Canterbury and York to the Church of England has grown into an international and ecumenical call to prayer.

This year both Anglican and Methodist churches are joining together in this initiative. During the 11 days of Thy Kingdom Come, it is hoped that everyone who participates will deepen their friendship with Jesus and come to know that every aspect of their life is the stuff of prayer.

As well as being available in all the church porches, prayer request cards will be distributed around our communities and church schools, cards have instructions for their use and locations of the Collection Boxes, where the cards can be deposited.

Also during the 11 days, St John's Church Kingsley will be open every day from 9am until dusk for private prayer or just somewhere to be quiet.

There will be a daily 'Thought for the Day' -

Kingsley Bookworms

Next meeting 10th May 2018 at the Hurst Chapel at 7.30pm

Last month we talked about “The Heart Goes Last” by Margaret Atwood. Quite a few of us had read Atwood’s books and we were looking forward to this one. It was unlike most of her books, which led to a really interesting discussion. The subject matter was challenging, but most people found it easy to read. So, a lively meeting attended by 16 enthusiastic bookworms. We scored it 3 out of 5, but most people agreed that they were glad to have read it. As a book for a bookclub night it scored very highly.

At our May meeting we will be talking about “Miss Smilla’s Feeling for Snow” by Peter Hoeg. It is translated from Danish and has had excellent reviews. It was featured on Radio 4’s bookclub with the broadcast being available as a podcast. The book opens with a young boy falling to his death from the roof of their apartment building; it’s ruled an accident, but there’s something about the footprints in the snow that suggests that it wasn’t . . .

In April we are visiting a number of events at Weaver Words, Frodsham’s literary festival. We have got groups together over the last couple of years and it’s well worth a visit. We have also decided to see a Mystery Play in Chester. Everyone is welcome to join us on our outings.

We meet on the second Thursday of each month and everyone is welcome to join us at any of our meetings or events. Meetings start at 7.30pm and are held at the Hurst Chapel. If you want more information, please contact me on vgwillim@coach-work.co.uk or call me on 07799 067 457. We have also got our own Facebook page called Kingsley Bookworms.

Kingsley Walking Group

The March short walk started from Great Barrow and took us on a circular walk which included Little Barrow. About 4.1/2 miles of walking through some very pretty Cheshire countryside. On Great Barrow Hill we had views of the Welsh Hills, Stanlow Refineries and Helsby Hill. We then had a pleasant meal at the Wheatsheaf in Dunham on the Hill.

Eleven hardy and optimistic walkers turned up in the pouring rain for the Long Walk on 10 April. We set off from Cilcain (still raining), gradually gaining altitude, to join the Offa's Dyke path, then heading south toward Moel Famau. Although the rain eased somewhat, there was a cold wind on the tops, so we decided to descend to Cilcain, by a relatively good track. Approx. 7 bracing (!) miles.

Kingsley Walking Group have two walks each month: on the second Tuesday there is a long walk of 7 - 8.5 miles (bring a packed lunch); on the last Wednesday a short walk of approximately 5 miles with a coffee break and pub lunch. We meet at the Community Centre at 9.30am for the short walks and for the long walks in January and February. Note however an earlier start time of 9.00am for the long walks from March to November.

Information on the walks programme may be found on the Walking Club page of the Kingsley Village website. For more information call 788132 (short walks), 788068 (long walks).

Kingsley grown, hand tied bouquets available from Wisteria Cottage, The Hurst on a Friday.

CHRISTIAN AID WEEK 13-19th MAY 2018

We will be collecting house to house in Kingsley on behalf of Christian Aid again this year.

The aid sector has had a very bad press recently and has had to 'hang it's head in shame'. That is an awful pity as the hungry and needy are just as hungry and needy as they ever were, and probably more so! Please continue to be generous when the collector calls.

If anyone would be prepared to collect for us we would love to hear from you. Please call John or Kay on 01928 787475
