EDITORIAL NEWS AND VIEWS

Dear Readers

After a good summer break we are heading fast towards Autumn. Hopefully there will be some warm dry spells during this time to make up for all the rain that has fallen. The rain has ruined much of my raspberry crop, however if you have a vegetable patch in your garden or an allotment, maybe you have grown something that could be entered into the Frodsham 'Make It, Bake It, Grow It Show' on 14th September.

On 27th September the annual Macmillan Coffee Morning will be held at Kingsley Community Centre. This has always been a popular and very successful event. Please do your best to support this excellent charity that helps so many.

Kingsley Players Youth Theatre will perform 'Chatroom' - a thought provoking and relevant play on 27th and 28th September.

Kingsley Players

Youth Theatre

Social media takes centre stage at the next Kingsley Players Youth Theatre production.

Kingsley Players Youth Theatre were last on stage in May when they performed 'James and the Giant Peach', which won a record 8 nominations at the 2019 Cheshire Theatre Guild Awards, and they have been busy rehearsing for their next production of Enda Walsh's 'Chatroom', which is being performed late September.

'Chatroom' follows a group of bored and restless teenagers who spend their time deconstructing children's literature and the messages in modern pop music. But when a new member, Jim, joins to share his depression and thoughts of suicide, the conversation takes a dark turn. The group is torn between those who want to help and those who see this as a chance to create a martyr for the teenage population.

Cheshire Theatre Guild's Best Director 2019, Jake Powell, who is directing this production, says: 'I am excited to be directing this thought-provoking and relevant play. We have a fantastic cast of six 14 to 16 year olds, including the award-winning Ben Mather-Dodd and Eleanor Roberts. I am also thrilled to be working with PAPYRUS, who are providing help and support to the group as the play deals with the sensitive subject of youth suicide.'

'Chatroom' will be performed on Friday 27th and Saturday 28th September 2019, at Kingsley Community Centre, starting at 7:30pm. Due to mild adult themes, this play is suitable for those aged 13 and above.

Tickets cost £6 and can be booked in advance through the website www.kingsleyplayers.co.uk or by ringing the box office on 07724 892154

1919 – 2019 Kingsley WI Centenary Celebration

The July meeting of Kingsley WI celebrated 100 years since its inauguration. 40 members and guests, having received commemorative pens, were treated to a tasty salad meal prepared by the committee, made extra special by being served up by four wonderfully smart husbands (who even did the washing up, without the aid of a dishwasher, so no excuses at home then!)

Relaxing after the celebration cake had been cut by President Joan Barker and Cheshire Federation President Jean Harding, we heard from various members of the committee (dressed in vintage wear), about the origins of the WI, its resolutions and its speakers over the years with a bonus of some poetry written by past members. Also we heard about the living conditions of Kingsley villagers in 1919 compared to those of today and, although it was clear how much things have changed, it was apparent that the WI is as relevant today as it was in 1919, still offering friendship, interests and a voice. With such an enthusiastic following the WI may well have another centenary to celebrate in the future.

To the Family and Friends of Jean Piper

Jean would like to say a huge thank you to all the friends, neighbours, relatives and the many others who gave their unstinting time to help the family following the sudden death of Jean's Husband Chris.

Thank you is never enough

Kingsley Bookworms

Next meeting 12th September 2019 at the Hurst Chapel at 7.30pm

I hope everyone has taken advantage of summer days to get lost in a book. Maybe you found a new author that you'd like to share with fellow bookworms? We always welcome new members and one of the best parts of our meetings is when we talk about what we've read recently and share suggestions.

At our September meeting we will talk about "Cold Comfort Farm" by Stella Gibbons followed by the Tattooist of Auschwitz because we postponed the August meeting due to holidays. We did manage to get a group of 14 to see Twelfth Night at the Grosvenor Park Outdoor Theatre which was a great production on a warm and sunny day. Our next outing will be to the Chester Literary festival in November to see Benjamin Zephaniah.

Our October book is The Silent Companion by Louise Purcell, a paranormal suspense book. It's described as "A genuinely creepy Victorian ghost story, it'll keep you up half the night reading it . . . and you won't want to turn off the light."

Kingsley Bookworms meet on the second Thursday of each month and everyone is welcome to join us at any of our meetings or events. There is no need to commit to coming to every meeting. We aim to be friendly and welcoming to one and all. Meetings start at 7.30pm and are held at the Hurst Chapel. If you want more information, please contact me on vgwillim@coach-work.co.uk or call me on 07799 067 457. We have also got our own Facebook page called Kingsley Bookworms.

On Stage Near You
Not already enjoying local shows? You really ought to get out more.

Kingsley Players must be starting the new season with a giant leap in their step after their successes at the Cheshire Theatre Guild (CTG) Awards in July. From the CTG website we see that KP won a record number of awards and were presented with the prestigious Adjudicators Award for their spirit of Community Theatre. Other awards comprised Lynn Pegler, the Write Now! award for Peterloo;

Mike Vickers and Lol Lynch, Best Lighting and Sound for Peterloo;

Jake Powell, Best Director of a Youth Production for James and the Giant Peach; Joan Barker and her Team, Best Costume for James and the Giant Peach; and Chloe Rigby, Best Supporting Actor for her role of Emma Fairfax in Dr Dolittle. All of these awards were won against stiff competition particularly from local theatres. Well done to one and all and aren't we lucky in this village to be able to support such a skilled group of amdrammers?

The season starts with Jake Powell (award winner from above) returning with his award winning cast to present their September youth production, Ch@troom by Edna Walsh, on 27th & 28th. This is a strong piece of theatre and we are sure this talented cast will give great performances. Do give these youngsters your support. You will not be disappointed. Grab your tickets at <https://kingsleyplayers.co.uk/shows/chtroom/>

Others to see in September

4th to 7th Knutsford Little Theatre - Confusions by Alan Ayckbourn and directed by Pete Blain. This is one of the writers best known comedies, a series of interlocking single stories each linked by a common cast member. <http://www.knutsfordlittletheatre.com/>

5th to 8th Harlequin Players Girls Like That by Evan Placey and directed by Laura Bason. Described as an urgent and explosive play that explores gender equality and the pressures on today's digital generation. This show will be slick and contemporary. No matter what generation you are you will be able to connect with this story as an audience member. .http://www.harlequinplayers.com

6th to 14th Nantwich Players – Steel Magnolias by Robert Harling and directed by Marie Straker is described as a warm, witty, play full of deliciously funny and outrageous comments but also very moving and thought provoking. Well worth the trip, <https://www.nantwichplayers.com/plays/steel-magnolias/94>

23rd to 28th Altrincham Garrick – Towards Zero by Agatha Christie and directed by Mike Shaw. Described as a nail biting thriller, what is the connection between a colonial adventurer, a well known "lounge lizard", a retired barrister and the complicated marital arrangements of a famous tennis player? <https://www.altrinchamgarrick.co.uk/shows/towards-zero/>

29th to 5th Oct Altrincham Little Theatre – A Bright Fine Day Today by Philip Goulding - Since the death of her trawlerman husband 30 years ago, Margaret Harvey has lived with her daughter Rebecca in a small cottage in a coastal town. Warm, funny and moving exploring love in later life.<http://www.clubtheatre.org.uk/>

Lack of space prevents further details but there is a plethora of musicals to be seen including Tip Tops Chicago and followed by My Fair Lady ; Joseph and his Amazing Dream Coat and lesser known Pavilion at Theatre Clwyd, Saturday Night Fever followed by The Rocky Horror Show at The Storyhouse Chester, so plenty of toe tapping stuff to be seen.

If your production or a play you have seen did not appear here then please email us and do tell us about plays you have seen by emailing cheshireonstage@btinternet.com. John Doe

Kingsley Walking Group – Summer 2019

The July long walk started at Little Moreton Hall. A happy band of walkers enjoyed good weather and a varied walk including a ridge and a canal section leading to Mow Cop.

In August we'd planned to do a walk near Conway, but there had been rain in the days leading up to the walk so we decided to go to the Great Orme instead. Eleven walkers enjoyed great views out to sea and across to Anglesey, the Conway valley and mountain peaks beyond, and the Little Orme, as well as the colourful mixed gorse, heather and birdlife, and good company, on a lovely sunny day.

Kingsley Walking group is an informal walking group which has been meeting for several years. Our monthly long walks usually start about 90 minutes drive away from Kingsley. Generally the long walks would be classified as "moderate" and the short walks are leisurely. We have a leader for every walk who checks the walk for stiles, distance, closed paths etc. New members and walk leaders are very welcome. We are a friendly and inclusive group.

The September long walk will be on September 10th, meeting at the Community Centre at 9am. We will be going to the Peak District. For details, contact Vony on 789098. If you're wondering about joining and you'd like more information, give us a call.

Kingsley Walking Group has two walks each month: on the second Tuesday there is a long walk of 7 - 8.5 miles (bring a packed lunch); on the last Wednesday a short walk of approximately 5 miles with a coffee break and pub lunch. During the summer months we meet for our long walks at the Community Centre at 9.00am. We aim to be back in Kingsley by about 6pm. Short walks start at 9.30.

LITTER PICK UPDATE

The next litter picks will be on Saturday 21st September and Saturday 12th October

Why not join us and help to keep our village tidy. We meet at 10.00 at the Community Centre and all equipment is provided.

Kingsley Garden Club - September 2019

Didn't the summer go quickly and what a summer we had, at least the gardens got a good watering. Kingsley Garden Club starts its new 2019/20 Season on the 9th September, with William Woods of Blackbrook Nurseries coming to talk to us on "Herbs, their culinary and medicinal uses", it will be interesting to hear how we can fully utilise these humble plants.

As we advised in the June 2019, edition of Kingsley News, following the AGM in May, it was unanimously agreed that the Club should increase its membership costs if it was to survive, (the other option was to wrap up the club within 2 years). To this end, with effect of the 9th September 2019, the following will apply;

- Annual membership will increase to £15 per person. This will be held at this level for 2 years.
- Visitors will be charged at £4 per person per meeting, again held for 2 years.
- The raffle will remain at 50p per ticket.
- All members and visitors will be asked to sign in with their name only when attending, this is purely for administrative purposes to allow us to provide accurate attendance figures when presenting our end of year accounts.

At the last meeting we trialled a "Swap" table, this will continue. Please bring any gardening related items surplus to requirements, with a label showing your name. ALL UNEXCHANGED ITEMS TO BE TAKEN HOME AT THE END OF THE MEETING, A small donation to the club would be welcome.

Gardening Tips and Jobs to be done.....

- Divide herbaceous perennials and remodel your borders
- Pick autumn soft fruits such as raspberries
- Collect and sow seeds from perennials and hardy annuals, sow sweet peas in the greenhouse ready for next year.
- Continue to dead head plants such as roses and delphiniums
- Take cuttings and keep over winter in a greenhouse or on a light windowsill
- Dig up any remaining potatoes before the slugs get fat on them

- If you have put any new plants such as shrubs in your beds (this is now the planting season) remember to keep watering them
- Clean out cold frames and greenhouses to remove any pests or diseases ready to store plants in pots over winter.
- Plant spring flowering bulbs
- Good news! you can now start to reduce the number of cuts on your lawns, and raise the cutting head. Give your lawns an autumn feed, scarify and aerate the lawns as well.

Memory Walk Volunteer Role advertisement

What's involved?

We need over 2500 volunteers this year to help make Memory Walk a success. Without volunteers, we cannot hold the events and reach our target.

Join us at Arley Hall and Gardens for our Cheshire Memory Walk on Saturday 12 October. With two routes to choose from, we need enthusiastic volunteers to make it a day to remember for our walkers. Volunteers are needed for just a few hours. Volunteers of all ages are welcome, but if you are under 16 you must be accompanied by a parent or guardian and if you're aged 16-18 you will need to complete a parental consent form.

Most of our volunteers will be needed between 08:30 and 13:30, depending on the role. Exact timings will be confirmed nearer the date.

There are lots of ways you can help make Memory Walk a great day for everyone involved; including marshalling, route marking, cheering walkers across the finish line, interacting with walkers, selling merchandise, helping to keep the site clean and tidy and helping with event setup and breakdown.

About you:

Memory Walk welcomes everyone and we'll find a role to suit your needs! We love volunteers who are happy to take on a variety of different roles throughout the day, are good communicators and comfortable talking to our walkers. Volunteering at Memory Walk is also great for pairs and groups.

The impact you'll make:

Memory Walk is Alzheimer's Society's flagship fundraising event, where thousands of walkers unite against dementia at sponsored walks across England, Wales & Northern Ireland. The money raised at Memory Walk helps to fund our universal and local services, as well as our research and campaigning work.

What you need to know:

Have a read of our website for more information about the role

We welcome volunteers from all backgrounds, communities and experiences. We will make you feel welcome, included and respected because together we are united.

How to apply:

Register at <https://www.memorywalk.org.uk/volunteering/> or call 0300 330 5452 to register over the phone
