EDITORIAL NEWS AND VIEWS

Dear Readers

The nights are now drawing in and it is time to start thinking about Christmas, which seems to come round quicker every year the older I get! I have already made my Christmas Cake, but I hope I am not alone in struggling to think what gifts to buy! Norley are holding their Christmas Tree Festival on 1st to 3rd December and Hurst Methodist Church have a tree on which you can put your own or family photographs, see the template in the magazine.

We have only just recovered from Halloween and now it is nearly bonfire night. Although an enjoyable time for children and adults alike watching bonfires and fireworks, it can be an anxious and frightening time for pets and it is important to spare a thought for their safety. Make sure that they are kept inside the house and as far away from any noise as possible.

The annual Remembrance Service will take place on 12th November at Kingsley Cemetery commencing at 11.00am where wreaths will be laid to commemorate those who died in the world wars. All are welcome to attend.

Finally, if you have ever wanted to try growing your own vegetables and fruit, but haven't got the space, then contact the Kingsley Allotment Society as there are some allotments currently available.

Elizabeth

MacMillan Coffee Morning.

Our annual coffee morning was held on 29th September 2017. We had a wonderful turnout of villagers of all ages and we raised the magnificent sum of £2050, a record!

We do thank everybody for their generosity in raising this amount.

As you may know this was a “swan song” for us and we hope that someone will take over next year. Please contact either of us if you are interested, so that we can pass on relevant information.

We must thank all the people who helped on the day – the WI, Staff, children and parents at St John’s, Chris Millward, all the stall holders and friends who helped on the stalls and set up the room.

Local Businesses have been very generous in providing tea/coffee essentials and raffle prizes.

The biggest compliment we received was – “It’s the best social event in the village calendar.” It was certainly a joy to see everyone chatting and meeting up with friends – Thank you all.

RSK has sponsored the printing of Weaver and Sandstone Cycle Forum's Frodsham cycle map, a local initiative close to the environmental consultancy's head office in Helsby.

The maps provide family-friendly cycle routes across north Cheshire. With RSK sponsoring the print run, the forum has distributed hard-copy cycle maps to a variety of local businesses and establishments. The group also hopes to provide maps to local schools.

Interested cyclists can plan safe and convenient routes using the free map.

"RSK's involvement reflects our commitment to promoting environmentally-friendly travel options and our dedication to improving health and wellbeing," comments RSK corporate responsibility and sustainability director Sue Sljivic.

"Furthermore, it has been a great opportunity for us to support our local community, something that remains an important part of the RSK ethos."

You can download a digital copy of the cycle map from the Cycle Forum website. For a hard copy of the map, please use the 'contact us' form on the website.

Big thanks to everyone who contributed and cast youngsters George Holbrook, Matthew Betteridge, Madison and Teigan Withey, Chloe Wiffin and Ben Mather-Dodd.

Watch out for our next production – 'Cinderella', on stage at Kingsley Community Centre in December.

Kingsley Bookworms

Next meeting 9th November 2017 at the Red Bull at 8.00

At our October meeting a dozen of us met up to talk about “The Good Liar” by Nicolas Searle. This is yet another book with a twist, although, this time, it was clear that “something wasn’t quite right” from the very beginning. Most of the group enjoyed it and thought that the twist really was unexpected and well hidden. As ever, not everyone loved the book although, unusually, even the people who didn’t like it read on to the end because they felt that they’d been drawn in to the story. Everyone agreed that it was an easy read.

The book scored an average of 3.7 out of 5, a good score.

In November we will be talking about “Autumn” by Ali Smith. It was nominated for the Man Booker prize. (it didn’t win) We will compare our thoughts with those of the judges. Ali Smith has split the group in the past and we expect a lively discussion at the meeting.

We also got a list of books for 2018 together, anticipating that people will be asking for our Christmas lists! The final list will be on our Facebook page or contact me and I’ll send a copy on. It’s a mixed list, ranging from a Booker prize winner through to a first novel. We have a thriller, historical novel, war story and everything in between. The list was made up from suggestions from a number of our members.

Everyone is welcome to join us at any of our meetings or events. If you want more information, please contact me on vgwillim@coach-work.co.uk or call me on 07799 067 457. We have also got our own Facebook page called Kingsley Bookworms.

It's that time of year again! The Knoll Surgery will be holding its annual Flu Clinic at Kingsley Community Centre on the morning of Thursday 9th November 2017.

New ideas and events are always welcome; if you would like to get involved with a single event or on a longer term basis then please get in touch.

On Stage Near You

Not already enjoying local shows? You really ought to get out more.

We start by featuring a December performance because not only is it being performed at the beginning of the month with a number of Kingsley Players involved, we have also received a lot of information about this from Harlequin Players. To précis, When We Are Married by J B Priestley is to be directed by KPs Malcolm Barker at The Harlequin Theatre, Northwich from Wednesday 6th to Saturday 9th and the cast includes KPs Neil and Lesley Silcock, Jake Powell and John Dodd (all in KPs Allo Allo), together with Fran and Ellie Hamer. Harlequin regulars will also recognise most of the rest of the cast from last season's Flea in Her Ear. Three couples gather to celebrate their silver anniversary when they discover that they are not legally married. They try to keep it secret but are hampered by an alcohol-soaked news photographer, keen to record the evening's events for posterity, and a wickedly destructive housekeeper who is hoping to use the couples' mortification to her own advantage. Priestley's famous and most mischievous face promising an evening of great mirth and laughter.

<http://www.harlequinplayers.com/>

Also make a note of Kingsley Players pantomime from 13th to 15th December.

Cinderella written by their own Colin Smith with music by their award winning composer and musical director Arnold Ashbrook. A lot more information next month. www.kingsleyplayers.co.uk

WHAT TO SEE IN NOVEMBER

6th – 11th Altrincham Garrick – Wolf Hall by Hilary Mantel, directed by Nick Sample, was dramatised for television and is a huge epic historical drama about Henry 8th and Thomas Cromwell.

<http://www.altrinchamgarrick.co.uk/>

8th – 11th Knutsford Little Theatre – The Cat and the Canary by John Willard. This latest adaptation sees the newly formed Knutsford Little Broadcasting Company present the play (their first - but it doesn't show really!) as a 1950's live-radio-broadcast complete with sound effects in view of the studio audience. <http://www.knutsfordlittletheatre.com/>

11th to 18th Chester Little Theatre – The Things Good Men Do by Dan Muirden. Director John Turner. "There are three types of girlfriend: those you tell your parents about, those you tell your friends about and those you tell no one about". Reformed womaniser Nick is approaching thirty and has fallen head over heels in love with the girl he wants to marry and have kids with. But then a dark little fling he'd rather forget comes back to threaten everything.

An interesting plot promises a good evening out with this experienced and talented group. <http://www.chestertheatreclub.co.uk/>

15th – 18th Guilden Sutton Players – Flint Street Nativity by Tim Firth, the well known local writer most famous for Calendar Girls. Mizzis Horrocks' class of seven year olds is about to perform their nativity play at Flint Street Junior School for the proud mums and dads - and the occasional social worker. Squabbles arise when Gabriel wants to play Mary, the Star grumbles he's not a proper star like they have at NASA, Herod won't stop waving to his mum and dad and the subversive Innkeeper is determined to liven up the traditional script. And then the stick insect escapes...
<http://www.guildensuttonplayers.org/>

19th to 25th Altrincham Little Theatre – The Actress by Peter Quilter - A funny and poignant new comedy, dramatizing the events backstage as a colourful, complicated actress makes her farewell performance, while dealing with unexpected visitors.. <http://www.clubtheatre.org.uk/>

29th – 2nd DecemberFrodsham Players – When We Are Married by J B Priestley. We note a change of programme to include this play which takes to the stage a week before the Harlequin production so a nearer venue is available although we have received no details.

Reviews

Not surprisingly we have had a lot of feed back about KPs Goodnight Mr Tom which was universally highly praised and I hope all of our readers saw it. A wonderful story told so well and everyone enjoyed watching this truly enjoyable tale. It would be unfair to select individuals but fair to say that all parts were really well played and the whole presentation was interesting with unique appeal. Great ideas in set building and particular praise for the set painters. Lucky us to have so much talent on our doorsteps.

You also liked Motherhood at Davenham Theatre where sell out audiences enjoyed a well played show. We do hope you managed to get to Tarvin to see Ashton Players and The Pitman Painters. What a great story and cast. Definitely enjoyed by those who responded. Finally we had reports of It Runs in the Family by Ray Cooney which ran at The Altrincham Garrick at the end of September. This classic farce deservedly continues to do well and an experienced cast played a really great production.

The four plays you have reported on could all have been seen with change from £30 per head. What super value. You too can do the same in November. If your production or a play you have seen did not appear here then please email us and tell us about plays you have seen by emailing cheshireonstage@btinternet.com. John Doe

Kingsley Walking Group

Nine walkers completed the short walk in September, which started from The Walton Arms in Warrington. They walked along the Bridgewater Canal, through fields to Hill Cliff, then through a cutting which used to be the old Chester Road, it was here that they saw the old drinking trough hewn out of the rock. Through more fields towards Hatton and then towards Moore, where they rejoined the canal to walk back to the Walton Arms for a delicious lunch.

Six intrepid walkers tackled the Long Walk on October 10th in pleasant Autumn sunshine, having left Kingsley in the rain. The walk was seven and a half miles long and included a steep climb at the start to the site of Caradoc's (Celtic tribal chieftain) hill fort east of Church Stretton. The views from the summit were magnificent across to the Long Mynd, The Wrekin, North Shropshire, Apedale and Wenlock Edge. The walk then meandered down to the conservation village of Cardington where a picnic lunch was taken after some liquid refreshment at Shropshires oldest inn (Royal Oak). We then returned over the conical hills of Hope Bowdler and The Gaer Stone to our cars parked at Hazler Hill.

Kingsley Walking Group have two walks each month: on the second Tuesday there is a long walk of 7 - 8.5 miles (bring a packed lunch); on the last Wednesday a short walk of approximately 5 miles with a coffee break and pub lunch. We meet at the Community Centre at 9.30am for the short walks and for the long walks in January and February. Note however an earlier start time of 9.00am for the long walks from March to November.

Information on the walks programme may be found on the Walking Club page of the Kingsley Village website. For more information
